

THE PEP 2015 Symposium

Reducing transport-related emissions for a better environment and human health

Room VIII
Tuesday, 17 November 2015

3:00 - 3:10	Welcome	Welcome and opening remarks (THE PEP Chair and moderator)
3:10 - 3:30	Key note address	The burden of air pollution on health in Europe <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Prof Nino Künzli, Deputy Director, Swiss Tropical and Public Health Institute, Basel</li></ul>
3:30 - 4:00		Open floor discussion with keynote speaker <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Mr. Franklin Apfel, moderator</li></ul>
4:00 - 4:30	Coffee break
4:30 - 5:30	Panel discussion	To reduce emissions of transport-related greenhouse gasses, air pollution and noise <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Mr. Richard Ballaman, Chairman of the Working Group on Strategies and Review of the UNECE LRTAP Convention</li><li>Mr. Kjetil Aasland Minister Counsellor Health issues, Permanent Mission of Norway in Geneva</li><li>Ms. Maria Neira, Director, Department of Public Health, Environmental and Social Determinants of Health, WHO, Geneva</li><li>Mr. Serge Ficheux, Chair of the UNECE Working Party on Noise (GRB) and Central Technical Office Manager</li><li>Ms. Laurence Rouil, Head of the Environmental Modelling and Decision Making Department, INERIS, Chair of EMEP</li><li>Ms. Maria Berrini, CEO, Milan Mobility Agency</li><li>Mr. Hervé Levifve, Technical Adviser of the Deputy Mayor of Paris for transport, travel, roads and public space</li></ul>
5:30 - 5:50	Q&A
5:50 - 6:00	Closure	Final considerations, conclusions and closing remarks

Registration: lydia.panchenko@unece.org

THE PEP

Transport, Health and Environment
Pan-European Programme

UNECE

REGIONAL OFFICE FOR

World Health Organization
Europe